HERE are many persons suffering from Coughs, Consumptive tendency, Scrofula, loss of appetite, Debility, and Emaciation, that fully believe Cod Liver Oil the only remedy for their maladies, but who hesitate to take it because it tastes and smells so badly. We recommend this to all who entertain this objection to call at our stores, and receive gratis, a sample bottle of our new oil,—which is the sweetest and most ever produced by any manufacturers in the world. It is almost free from taste and smell, and will not be rejected by the most sensitive stomach. It will cost nothing to try it. Do not allow the opportunity to pass.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 16, 1858.

FOR SENATOR,
ROBERT B. CRANSTON.

CITY REPUBLICAN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Ward 1. Micah W. Spencer,
Jeremiah Brown,
Philip Lowell, Jr.,
John D. Dennis,
Samuel T. Hopkins,
Abraham T. Peckham,
Joseph M. Lyon,
Henry N. Ward,
Clarke H. Burdick,
Simeon H. Cottrell.

Political Aspects.

There is to-day an election in this city, for Senator, and as nearly as we are advised at this writing there will be at least four candidates in the field. First is our own the Honorable Robert B. Cranston, whom a more sincere, and disinterested Republican does not live. Secondly, George H. Knowles, the American Republican nominee, for whom, as we can say nothing favorable, we shall say nothing. Thirdly, George Turner, Esq., who though a "Democrat" is understood to occupy Mr. Douglas' position, and to be opposed to the Administration, a good and most worthy man, a consistent Democrat in the original meaning of that much abused term, and John Alfred Hazard, who has long been before the public as the Democratic candidate for Senator, and probably will be for many a year, with the same success as heretofore. He is, or is supposed to be, an Administration Democrat.

Now which of these men, dear reader, will you support? Every vote to-day counts for, or against some one, and consequently any man who has opinions upon the questions before the country, ought to vote in accordance with those convictions. Those who really desire to put a stop now and forever to the progress of Slavery, who wish to make SLAVERY SECTIONAL, and FREEDOM NATIONAL, should vote for Mr. Cranston, because his vote may be necessary to the election of a Republican United States Senator. It may all depend upon a single vote, and shall that wanting vote be yours?

Those again who are in favor of keeping up the American Party, now happily on the wane, to set between Republicanism and Whigism, can support Mr. Knowles, while those who seek to prop the tottering fabric of the Pro-Slavery Party, can, as heretofore vote, with that Aristocratic few—and unwashed many, now known as the "Democratic Party."

Again, George Turner stands before you, as heretofore a Democrat, but utterly opposed to the extravagant and wicked course of the Executive. He is every inch a man—good—true man, and should poll every Democratic vote.

As for the third class, which calls itself "American Republicans," it is only an Ass, in a Lie's skin, although cooked up in Providence, and "fisted" upon the gross anatomy of a genuine article, and although with the aid of the Slave Democracy it achieved a fatal success in this city, at the recent election, it was "no where" in Providence itself, albeit two score of Providence Lawyers. In a vote of 2619 cast at the last election in Providence, the "American Republican" vote was only 355! while the Democratic ticket received 667! and this is the wonderful fusion, which was to accomplish so much. It has discredited our friends, given confidence to our enemies, confused, and extended the elections both here, and elsewhere, and had it not been for the overwhelming Republican sentiment in the State, would have involved us in serious and permanent difficulties.

In order to show their own imaginary greatness to the best advantage, a few poor mortals, with little idea of what they were doing, and less knowledge of the consequences, took advantage of official position, unfortunately confided in them, to make an unexpected, and well nigh fatal attack upon our party. It has survived the shock, but will never forgive it.

To-day then, Republicans, show these men that your spirit is unbroken, and when they approach you to ask, that you will take no active part in the annihilation of their candidate, which they will do—shame them—that they would make you parties to their treachery.

Vote to-day for ROBERT B. CRANSTON, he who has been faithful and true, whether whom you have honored have gone to the enemy. Have we no spirit—that we can be thus tampered with? Yes! and TO DAY will we give good evidence of it.

GOOD FOR A DOUTCHFACE.—This is the way Senator Pugh is rewarded by those whom he was so anxious to conciliate. What you say of Pugh is to us a secret, but you will be sure to get into a maze if you step a yard with "the old" Englishman, in a dark hole, and you will be paid for that is most sure, and don't know where to go for a yard or two, a dark hole, a dark hole. What a strange town in such an oblivious state that he takes the City Hall Park for a sugar bush, and the LOCAL NEWS, &c.

"We are happy to announce the looked-for return of our distinguished citizen Wm. H. Miss Esq., from his pastoral excursion to Charleston, N. G. (Narragansett,) and not Charlestown, S. C., as we announced a few days ago. Mr. B. succeeded beyond his expectations in catching a large number of trout and dace, that was unable to bring them to this city alive, as was his intention. After fishing the Beaver and Saugatuck Rivers, and Punch Bowl Creek, he wound his way to the country residence of Mr. Kenyon where he re-reshed the inner man with a bountiful supply of bread and milk. Mr. Kenyon is to send him one hand-lined live trout in a few days, which will be placed in our adjoining streams. May success attend Mr. B. in the propagation of fish.

"The May number of GODFREY'S LADY'S BOOK is already before us with its beautiful steel engravings, and its monthly show of fashion plates of every conceivable form and pattern, besides which the table of contents teems with an endless variety of stories and other interesting reading matter particularly designed for the taste of the hosts of ladies who welcome GODFREY as a monthly visitor to their homes. The principal engraving "The Queen of May," is a gem of itself and is worth alone the price of the whole number.

"BLACKWOOD'S Edinburgh Magazine for March has been placed upon our table by the American Publishers, Messrs. Leonard Scott & Co., of New York. It contains as usual an attractive contents viz.—"What will he do with it?" "Zanzibar," "Our Convicts," "Stories from ancient Sind," "Food and Drink" "Sullivan on Cumberland," "Curiosities of Natural History" and "a few more words from Mr. John Company to Mr. John Bull." For sale at Tilley's.

"LITTLELL'S LIVING AGE for April, commences a new and enlarged series of that popular work, the character of which is too well known to need any recommendation. It is only necessary to say that the old veteran hero of literature, Mr. Littell, still continues to manage the editorial department and that it is to contain many more pages and typographical improvements; thus allowing him a wider scope for his researches; and we have said more than we could say of any other American publication:

"The work is now published, (as heretofore, weekly,) by Littell, Son & Co., of Boston, and by Stanford & Delesser of New York. Those who may thoroughly understand its character and object, we clip the following from the prospectus published in the present number:

"To all professional men, to clergymen, lawyers, physicians, as well as to merchants and mechanics, who desire to keep up with the Tide of Time, this work is indispensable. It is not possible for them to wade through the great mass of current literature; labor which tasks to the uttermost the days and nights of the experienced editor, with all the help by which his long knowledge of the whole field enables him to economize labor. And if it were possible for each one of these classes to do this, he would turn from it as a weariness of the flesh and of the soul. He would recoil with disgust from the heavy lassitude, the serious vanity, the rapid wit, the stupid pomposity through which we have to grope after something better. We say nothing of reading twenty good reviews of the same subject, in order to select the two or three best out of them. If he had done this, even in some superficial way, for a year, he would be ready to exclaim: "Who will show us any good?" and would be qualified to judge of the value of the Living Age as a labor-saving machine."

TRICKS AND TRAPS OF NEW YORK CITY. Part I. "To be forewarned, is to be fore armed." New York, Dinsmore & Co.

The above is the title of a series of books the first number of which has made its appearance in our sanctum. The work is written in a witty and pleasing style and illustrated most comically by Hopper, besides which it contains much information respecting the snarls of Gotham which will be of the utmost importance to many of the "green ones;" and the "bright ones" would find its contents far from being beneath them. It can be procured by sending 10 cents to the publisher, on the receipt of which he will forward it to any address post paid. We clip the following summing up "advice to verdants," for which we trust the publisher will pardon us.

"And now don't, for Heaven's sake, any of you, go and make insane jackasses of yourselves, by running into the very snarls that we have warned you against. When you come to New York, try to act honestly by every one; for we assure you that one-half the people who are taken in by the tricks we have described, lose their money while endeavoring to swindle somebody else. Keep your eyes wide open, and shun the advances of smooth spoken strangers of both sexes—don't trust any one until an acquaintance of longer than a single day has given you assurance of his fairness and honesty, and last, not least, DON'T GET DRUNK."

You will have enough to do to keep out of trouble if you retain the full possession of your five senses and four limbs; but you are morally certain to get into a maze if you step a yard with "the old" Englishman, in a dark hole, and you will be paid for that is most sure, and don't know where to go for a yard or two, a dark hole, a dark hole. What a strange town in such an oblivious state that he takes the City Hall Park for a sugar bush, and the Park Fountain for the sap kettle, his companion is sure to take advantage of by the many honorable gentlemen who make that delightful locality their haunt, and pluck an honest living by lesemen."

"The Student and Schoolmate or "Foresters Boys and Girls Magazine" for April lay before us, its contents are unusually attractive for the Young Folks, and it contains much useful information penned in an interesting style and illustrated plentifully with excellent engravings. Published by James Robinson & Co., 119 Washington street Boston, and Calkins & Stiles 348 Broadway New York.

"His honor the Mayor has our thanks for a copy of the "Charter, Special State Laws and ordinances for the Government of the City of Newport" which have recently been revised and rearranged by him and published in a neat pamphlet form by order of the City Council. The arrangement and publication of a work of this character has long been felt but for Mr. Cranston's ability and perseverance in the matter we might still have been without it.

"SARDENT'S SCHOOL MONTHLY for April, presents a neat and pleasing typographical appearance, besides which its table of contents is more than ever adapted to the amusement and improvement of its youthful readers. Published by Epes Sargent at 289 Washington street, Boston Mass.

handed us rather a curious little work enti-

led The WONDERFUL WORKS OF GOD, or a Narrative of the wonderful facts in the case of

Ansel Bourne of Westerly, R. I. The writer

or rather the subject of this work states that he was suddenly struck blind, dumb, state for eighteen days he was completely re-

In an address of the citizens of Monrovia

striking paragraph occurs—

"The first thing which caused our vol-still regard with the deepest concern, is liberty; liberty in the sober, simple, but complete sense of the word, that liberty of speech, action, and conscience, which distin-nied to us in America; and now we truly declare to you, that our hopes and expectations in this respect have been realized.

ours. We are proprietors of the soil, we

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, most perfect, which medical science can afford. Ayu's CATHARTIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects above, they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known. Other preparations do more or less good; but this cures such dangerous complaints, so quickly and so surely, as to prove an efficacy and a power to uproot disease beyond any thing which men have known before. By removing the obstructions of the several organs and stimulating the healthy action, they renovate the organs of life and vigor—health courses through the body, and the sick man is again. They are adapted to disease, and disease only, for when taken by one in health, it produces but little effect. This is the portion of medicine. It is antiseptic to the body, and no more. Tender children may take them with impunity. If they are sick they will cure them, if they are well they will not cure them.

Give them to some patient who has been prostrated with bilious complaint; see his spirits rising from sickness with strength again; are they long and appetitive again; are they daily fatigued? Give them to some infant whose blood has burst out in a fit. The skin is covered with spots; who starves, or starves in anguish. He has indolence, insipid and sickly; give him a portion which hardly could suggest. Give them to him, who every humor have planted rheumatism in his joints and bones; move him, and he scruples with pain; he has been racked through every muscle of his body with humors and salts; give him these Pills, to purify his blood; they may not cure him, for, shall there be cases which no mortal power can reach; but mark, he walks with crutches now, and now he walks alone; they have cured him.

If you have the less serious symptoms of these distempers, they are the early cures, Jaundice, Conscientia, Headache, Siderache, Heartburn, Full Stomach, Nausea, Pain in the Bowels, Flatulence, Loss of Appetite, King's Evil, Neuralgia, Gout, and kindred complaints all arise from the derangements which these Pills rapidly cure. Take them persistently, and under the counsel of the physician, who have Spermatorrhœa or Neuralgia, lose no time but consult the Dr. and get his specific, which has saved thousands from the grave and which is warranted to cure this disease in from 3 to 6 weeks or the money refunded.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYU, Practitioner and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold at all Druggists everywhere.
